2. Comments or special needs (for instance, vegetarian food, allergies, etc.):

3. Accommodation

Accommodation costs will be covered by the participant. We have pre-reserved a selection of rooms in one hotel (Residenz). The pre-reserved rooms will be hold for us until 30 April 2018; please book directly with the hotel, using the booking code “DHBW Partnership Week 2018”.

Hotel Residenz: 79 Euro for a single room, 89 Euro for a double room (single occupancy rate), www.residenz-ravensburg.de
Breakfast is included in the price (if only one night is booked, the price is slightly higher).

For participants on a tight budget, the Gasthof Ochsen is another option. It is a simple guesthouse with fewer facilities than a normal hotel. Another good option is Hotel Ochsen am Mehlsack, a brand new hotel with the same owner as the Gasthof Ochsen, it can, therefore, also be booked under the same link, www.ochsen-rv.de

All hotels are within a few minutes walking distance from our campus buildings in the town center.

4. Travel to Ravensburg

The closest airport to Ravensburg is Friedrichshafen; from there it is 20 minutes to Ravensburg with a commuter train running every hour. Other suitable airports with good railroad connections to Ravensburg are located in Stuttgart, Zurich, Munich and Memmingen (served by Ryanair). www.deutschebahn.com/en/start/. A cheap way to travel within Germany is to go by bus, normally the tickets need to be pre-reserved in order to secure a seat. One company is Flixbus, www.flixbus.de.
